SPRINGDALE.

G. M. Manchester of Rome, O., was here Tuesday.

Miss Ida Weaver is visiting friends and relatives in Lewis county.

A great many of our citizens attended Camp-meeting on last Lord's day.

It is an old, true adage that "only those whom the shoe fits need put it on."

Mrs. Augusta Rash of Bridgeport visited her aunt, Mrs. A. Emmons, the first of the week.

Elder J. M. Wallingford preached to a good sized congregation at the Old Baptist Church on Lord's day.

An adage as true as it is old says, "only those whom the shoe fits need put it on," in criticism or comment of a general character.

C. C. Degman has received notice that his Regiment, the Seventieth O. V. I., will reunite at Coney Island on the 25th and 26th of the present month.

At the ice cream supper at Plumville on Wednesday two of our prominent young men got into an altercation over some trifling matter and one of them was slashed in the side with a knife.

John Otto and sons know how to handle the "weed" successfully. They shipped to Cincinnati the past week their last year's crop of about 7,000 pounds, realizing for it 13 1/2 cents all around.

MORANBURG.

The Germantown bus came out Wednesday evening loaded with watermelons.

The Richardson brothers of Jersey Ridge attended Prayer-meeting here Wednesday night.

The watermelon crop in Charleston Bottom is a little late, yet it promises to be a very good one.

N. B. Richardson of Jersey Ridge is roofing and making other needed repairs on his dwelling house.

Joseph McNutt talks of erecting a pair of scales near the bridge. Everything seems to be moving this way.

Higgins & McNutt sold their crop of tobacco to Mr. Rains of Maysville for five and seven cents per pound.

Miss Lottie Rosser of Maysville and Miss Lizzie Chamberlain are visiting Mrs. Howard Rosser near Minerva.

A great quantity of wheat is now being hauled to the Maysville market over the Maysville and Germantown road.

Mrs. Laura Perrine of Tuckahoe and Mrs. W. B. Lloyd visited Mrs. Frank Kerr of Jersey Ridge last Wednesday.

From the present outlook we will have to be satisfied with a half crop of tobacco. The corn crop will be short also.

Sunday-school at the Christian Church next Sunday at 2 p. m. Come out early in order to attend the 3 o'clock sermon at the M. E. Church.

Frank Eitel will make application to the County Court on the 15th of August to sell beer at Moranburg. Petitions are being freely circulated both for and against license.

Rev. J. R. Nelson will preach at the Old Stone Church next Sunday at 3 p. m. Brother Nelson will preach his farewell sermon for this conference year the fourth Sunday in this month at 11 o'clock a. m.

We had a good attendance at Prayer-meeting Wednesday evening. Harry Richardson will lead the meeting next Wednesday night. Let everybody come out and bring their Gospel Hymn-books with them.

Pat McCue and son Frank have been putting a quantity of stone on the pike near here this week. Pat knows how to keep the road in good repair, while Jack is ever ready at the tollgate to take your odd change.

We had an old-time tramp among us a few days ago. Tom Stephens undertook to either kill him or kill him by feeding him. He had to give it up that he could do neither, and the old gentleman went on his way rejoicing.

The readers of THE LEDGER out here (and they are many) would like to hear from every correspondent of this paper during the next week. Let's make things lively for the next week or two to come. What do you say, brethren?

There are some parties engaged in cutting and hauling black walnut timber from the farms of E. D. Pickett and the late Darius Downing. The logs will be hauled to Maysville, side tracked and sold to the parties paying the most money.

Joseph McNutt has taken advantage of the liberal combination offer and paid $3.25 in advance for a year's subscription to THE PUBLIC LEDGER and THE New York Weekly Tribune. Let others do likewise. The Agent here is ready to receive subscriptions.

Lexington Fair.

The Kentucky A. and M. Fair Association at Lexington will be thrown open Tuesday, August 30th, continuing five days. The exhibitions at this fair grow better and better each succeeding year, and the management are straining every point to make the entertainment this year far excel any previously given. Excursion rates on all railroads, and the electric street railway in Lexington convey passengers from the depots to other parts of the city right up to the grand stand for five cents. See advertisement in this paper.

Boyton's Water Circus.
Captain Paul Boyton's Water Circus, the only one of the kind in the world, will be given in the Big Miami river at Woodside Island Park, Sunday afternoon, August 14th. The circus lasts two hours and a half and includes over thirty different feats and acts on the water, all new, novel and characteristically original, the whole concluding with a thrilling naval battle between two full rigged ships, and the complete destruction of one by a powerful torpedo. Aside from Captain Boyton's wonderful nautical exhibition in a rubber suit, in which he eats, smokes, drinks, sleeps and does many other unexpected and seemingly impossible things in the water. There will be a canvas canoe race between George Whistler of San Francisco and Andrew Paige of Winnipeg; a unique performance on floating logs by R. J. McFall, and a polo game played by the entire company while standing upright on the surface of the water in the new patent shoes. This last is the most amusing of water sports. There will also be a grand display of aquatic fireworks and ocean signals. The Captain will be at the park all day, the morning being occupied in making his preparations for the circus. There will also be an orchestra in the pavilion, and dancing all day. The C. and O. Railway will sell excursion tickets from Maysville at $1.25 for the round trip, including admission to the park. Trains will leave Maysville at 6:30 a. m.
